

Management Team Expands to Support Growing Demand for Electronic Identity Solutions

Global e-identity™ hires VP of Marketing

Wilmington, October 18, 2018 — Global e-identity™ announced today that Vince Corning has joined the company as VP of Marketing. Vince played a key role in taking Picazo Communications from concept, growing the company through three acquisitions and selling the company to Intel Corporation within three years. After the acquisition, he was promoted to the role of Director of Strategic Marketing where he represented his business unit in the co-management of a $250 million-dollar Intel Capital investment fund. He brings over 25 years of experience building teams and driving innovative products and services to market.

“When I met Mr. Adams and his team and understood his vision and the technology that he created, I realized that together we had the opportunity to positively change the world. I am honored to join the team,” said Corning. “Organizations, governments and individuals across the world are struggling with identification services that are easily compromised and/or highly invasive. Global e-identity™ solves this problem.”

“Vince has extensive experience creating new technology and brings a Silicon Valley perspective to the team” said Robert Adams, Founder of Global e-identity™. “We could not be more excited about adding Vince to our Executive Team as we continue to expand to meet the growing demand.
